Failure to make regular and timely repayments in accordance with the repayment schedule during Pay Back Period (PBP) will make the loanee liable to payment of interest at a rate of 10% on EMI, as shown below:—

$$\text{Interest} = \frac{\text{Balance EMI} * 10\%}{12}$$

In case the loanee fails to repay the loan by end of payback period, the interest on the outstanding amount will be charged as shown below, until the dues are settled.

$$\text{Interest} = \frac{(\text{Balance Principle amount} + \text{Total interest}) * 10\%}{12}$$

Any loan amount or a part thereof shall be recoverable from loanee or the surety as if it were arrears of Land Revenue.

9. Procedure of applying for the scheme and approval.— (i) The completed loan application along with all the necessary documents should be submitted to the office of GEDC on or before the last scheme date for receiving the applications. Loan applications submitted after the last date shall not be considered for grant of loan. If applicant does not complete his documentation within 2 weeks of receipt of intimation from the Corporation either by phone call, which shall be duly recorded in register maintained for this purpose only in the Corporation, or through letter or email or any other form of communication, the application form would be filed and considered as rejected.

(ii) All applications received under the scheme shall be registered and a unique registration number shall be generated and provided to the applicant. The registration number must be quoted in all subsequent correspondence and documentation.

(iii) The applications for loan under the scheme will generally be decided upon by the Sanctioning Committee within two months of receiving complete applications. Applicants may be required to submit additional details or to appear for a personal interview before the Sanctioning Committee if such a need arises.

(iv) Any applicant, who furnishes false or incorrect information or fails to furnish any necessary information, shall be disqualified from obtaining any benefit under the scheme. In the event that some loans have already been disbursed to such disqualified applicant, the loan shall become payable at once and will attract the liability of payment of interest at prescribed rate.

(v) Activities relating to scrutiny of applications and sanctioning of loans shall be undertaken by the Selection Committee constituted by the Government. The Committee shall frame, and be guided by, appropriate rules of procedure for smooth operation of the scheme. Such rules of procedure can be changed from year to year but generally will not be modified after notice inviting applications has been issued for that year.

(vi) The cases once rejected by the Sanctioning Committee constituted under the scheme will not be reopened/considered for sanction in the subsequent years.

(vii) In the event that the applicant has applied for a course that involves deadlines in relation to payment of fee and other charges, it shall be the responsibility of the applicant to arrange adequate finances for meeting such deadlines in such cases, the loan amount granted under the scheme can be utilized to pay back any such bridging loan obtained by the applicant from relatives friends or banks.

10. Documentation required.— (i) On approval of the application, and before the first disbursement of the sanctioned loan amount, for a total loan sanctioned upto Rs. 5.00 lakhs the beneficiary applicant shall execute a bond in favour of the Government of Goa for repayment of the loan amount in accordance with the terms and conditions of the IFEL Scheme. A similar bond will also need to be executed by one of the parent as surety (preferably one who is employed) for the beneficiary applicant. In the event that both the parents of the beneficiary applicant are deceased; the bond may be executed by the beneficiary applicant himself.

(ii) For a total loan sanctioned above Rs. 5.00 lakhs the beneficiary applicant shall execute a bond in favour of the Government of Goa for repayment of the loan amount in accordance with the terms and conditions of the IFEL Scheme. A similar bond will also need to be executed by one of the parent as surety (preferably one who is employed) of the beneficiary applicant and any person who is of major age and serving as Government servant or any person who owns a plot of land, flat or house in Goa.

(iii) In the event of the unfortunate death of the borrower, during the course of his studies or after the repayment has started, but before the entire loan has been paid, the outstanding amount of loan as on date of death may be written off after examining on case to case basis, on written request submitted along with the death certificate from the concerned parent.

(iv) In the event the borrower suffers a terminal illness, become insane or suffer from medical condition that makes him unfit to pursue a career/job during the course of his studies or after the repayment has started, but before the entire loan has been paid, the outstanding amount of loan as on date of such ailment proven, may be written off after examining on case to case basis; on written request from the concerned parent after verifying the medical report issued by GMC/PIHB.

11. Structure of "Higher Education Promotion Fund" (HEPF).— (i) A fund by the name of "Higher Education Promotion Fund" (HEPF) has been established by the Government through an initial contribution of Rs. 2.5 crores. All loans sanctioned under the scheme shall be paid out of this fund and all recoveries effected from the loanees during the pay back period shall be credited to this fund. The Government will take steps to replenish the quantum of funds available with HEPF from time to time.

(ii) All loans disbursed under the scheme during current academic year will be deemed to have been, sanctioned under this scheme, out of HEPF. All candidates who availed of this scheme during current academic year must furnish an undertaking to the effect that they shall comply with this scheme before the next quantum of disbursement of loan is made to them.

(iii) For management of HEPF, Government has entrusted the work to Goa Education Development Corporation (GEDC).

(iv) HEPF will be subject to audit by Comptroller and Auditor General of India every year.

12. Framing of guidelines.— For better implementation of this scheme the Government may frame guidelines from time to time.

13. Relaxation.— The Government shall be empowered to relax any or all clause or conditions of the scheme in genuine cases.

14. Interpretation.— If any question arises regarding interpretation of any clause, word, expression of the scheme, the decision about the interpretation shall be with the Government, which shall be final and binding on all concerned.

15. Redressal of grievances and disputes.— Grievances if any, arising out of the implementation of this scheme, will be heard and decided by Directorate of Higher Education and the decision in this regard shall be final and binding on all concerned.
